

The Road To Forgiveness Comes to Effingham!

In an inspiring, true story of “radical forgiveness,” renowned author Cindy Griffiths will share her journey of how she and her husband forgave the woman who took the lives of their loved ones. Cindy’s book, “The Road to Forgiveness: Hearts Shattered by Tragedy, Transformed by Love,” was featured on the Oprah Winfrey show and was the Number 1 spiritual book of all time on the Oprah Book Club.

“It’s a story of forgiveness so powerful, I almost could not believe it!”

— Oprah Winfrey —

You Are Invited To Meet Cindy And Hear Her Story!

Free and open to the public.

When: Monday, October 12, 6:00 PM

Where: Bible Lutheran Church, Rincon
812 Blue Jay Road

On June 28th, 1996 Cindy Griffiths lost her daughter and mother the instant a drunk driver careened into their van on a Nebraska highway.

What followed for Cindy and her family was grief's darkest days as they ached to cope with their loss. Yet in the midst of their pain, they did something nearly unfathomable: the Griffiths forgave, then befriended the woman, Verma Harvey, who had taken their loved ones, and led her to Christ.
