CONFESSION & FORGIVENESS***

In the name of the Father, and of the (+)Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

L: Do you renounce the devil and all the spiritual forces of evil that contend against God and his faithful servants? R: I do.

L: Do you renounce the influence and power of the world that are contrary to God's Word and will? R: I do.

L: Do you renounce the sin within your own heart, mind, and flesh, and call upon the Lord to deliver you from evil? R: I do.

L: I bid you now, confess your sins to your heavenly Father that he may cleanse, forgive and restore your soul.

(Moment of Silent Confession)

L: God is gracious and good and for Christ's sake forgives the sins of all who call upon him. May God establish you in faith, guard you against the evil one, and make you steadfast in the power of the Holy Spirit.

R: Amen. God is good. Amen. *(Confession adapted from Sola Publishing Occasional Rite: "The Call to Discipleship")

PSALM OF PRAISE – PSALM 80:7-19

<sup>7</sup> Restore us, O God of hosts; let your face shine, that we may be saved!

<sup>8</sup> You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.

<sup>9</sup> You cleared the ground for it; it took deep root and filled the land.

<sup>10</sup> The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches.

<sup>11</sup> It sent out its branches to the sea and its shoots to the River.

<sup>12</sup> Why then have you broken down its walls, so that all who pass along the way pluck its fruit?

<sup>13</sup> The boar from the forest ravages it, and all that move in the field feed on it.

<sup>14</sup> Turn again, O God of hosts! Look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine,

<sup>15</sup> the stock that your right hand planted, and for the son whom you made strong for yourself.

<sup>16</sup> They have burned it with fire; they have cut it down; may they perish at the rebuke of your face!

<sup>17</sup> But let your hand be on the man of your right hand, the son of man whom you have made strong for yourself!

<sup>18</sup> Then we shall not turn back from you; give us life, and we will call upon your name!

<sup>19</sup> Restore us, O Lord God of hosts! Let your face shine, that we may be saved!

READINGS

First Reading: Isaiah 5:1-7

<sup>1</sup> Let me sing for my beloved my love song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. <sup>2</sup> He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; and he looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

<sup>3</sup> And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. <sup>4</sup> What more was there to do for my vineyard, that I have not done in it? When I looked for it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? <sup>5</sup> And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down. <sup>6</sup> I will make it a waste; it shall not be runed or hoed, and briers and thorns shall grow up; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. <sup>7</sup> For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are his pleasant planting; and he looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed; for righteousness, but behold, an outcry!

Second Reading: Philippians 3:3-14

<sup>3</sup> For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— <sup>4</sup> though I myself have reason for confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: <sup>5</sup> circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup> as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. <sup>7</sup> But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. <sup>8</sup> Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup> and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— <sup>10</sup> that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, <sup>11</sup> that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. <sup>12</sup> Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. <sup>13</sup> Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, <sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-46

<sup>33</sup> “Hear another parable. There was a master of a house who planted a vineyard and put a fence around it and dug a winepress in it and built a tower and leased it to tenants, and went into another country. <sup>34</sup> When the season for fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to get his fruit. <sup>35</sup> And the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. <sup>36</sup> Again he sent other servants, more than the first. And they did the same to them. <sup>37</sup> Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ <sup>38</sup> But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.’ <sup>39</sup> And they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. <sup>40</sup> When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?” <sup>41</sup> They said to him, “He will put those wretches to a miserable death and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons.”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures: “‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes’?”

<sup>43</sup> Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits. <sup>44</sup> And the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him.”

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he was speaking about them. <sup>46</sup> And although they were seeking to arrest him, they feared the crowds, because they held him to be a prophet.

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

Pentecost 18 - October 4, 2020

“If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more...” - Philippians 3:4

Do you remember the song, “It’s Hard to Be Humble,” by Mac Davis? Even if you weren’t alive in 1974 when this record was released, you’ve probably heard it on the radio. The country singer crooned, “O Lord it’s hard to be humble, when you’re perfect in every way,” and, “to know me is to love me...”. It’s a silly song, however, certainly we know people who actually think this way about themselves.

St. Paul wrote to the church in Philippi saying that he had every reason to be proud of himself. If salvation came by works of the flesh, he had a resume that was sure to impress: circumcised on the eighth day according to the Law, a Benjaminite, a good Hebrew when it came to following the Torah, a Pharisee full of zeal, and blameless when it came to righteousness. Who can compete with that? No one! And, that’s not the way it works with Jesus anyway. (Thanks be to God!)

Instead of singing, “It’s hard to be humble when you’re perfect in every way,” St. Paul was saying, “I count all of that as loss for the sake of Christ.” Just sit with that sentiment for a moment. In a world where success means more money, more possessions, more status and power, it is quite countercultural to be of the mind of Christ, “who though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross” (Philippians 2:6–8).

Salvation comes through the cross of Christ alone. Our human desire is to be noticed, rewarded for our efforts, praised even. But humility and servanthood is the way of the cross. We can laugh at Mac Davis’ song, and then we can recognize that his words bear witness to our lack of humbleness. There was only one who was perfect in every way, and he was the epitome of self-emptying humility. (He would never have dared to sing such a tune!)

All the accomplishments we can put on our resume are nothing if we do not have Christ in our lives. He is our treasure and our greatest gift. Amen.
