

ALL SAINTS DAY (OBSERVED) - NOVEMBER 7, 2021

All Saints Day is the day on which we remember the lives of those faithful Christians who have gone before us unto death in the past year. The Scriptures offer us hope in the promise of Jesus' resurrection power in our lives. We look forward to seeing the Lamb of God face to face in that place where tears no longer exist. Christ is our comforter and King forever; his life is our life and we live to worship him.

HOLY COMMUNION, SETTING ONE

CONFESSION & FORGIVENESS (Stand, Spoken)

P: In the name of the Father, and of the (+) Son, and of the Holy Spirit. C: Amen

P: Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. C: Amen

P: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (Silence for reflection and self-examination)

P: Most merciful God,

C: we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen

P: In the mercy of Almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for you, and for his sake God forgives you all your sins. To those who believe in Jesus Christ he gives power to become the children of God and bestows on them the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

HYMN OF THE DAY "COME, LET US JOIN OUR FRIENDS ABOVE" (Stand, Sung; CCLI #5437003)

Come, let us join our friends above who have obtained the prize,
And on the eagle wings of love to joys celestial rise.
Let saints on earth unite to sing with those to glory gone,
For all the servants of our King in earth and heaven are one.

One family we dwell in him, one church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream, the narrow stream of death;
One army of the living God, to his command we bow;
Part of his host have crossed the flood, and part are crossing now.

Ten thousand to their endless home this solemn moment fly,
And we are to the margin come, and we expect to die.
E'en now by faith we join our hands with those that went before,
And greet the blood-besprinkled bands on the eternal shore.

Our spirits too shall quickly join, like theirs with glory crowned,
And shout to see our Captain's sign, to hear this trumpet sound.
O that we now might grasp our Guide! O that the word were given!
Come, Lord of Hosts, the waves divide, and land us all in heaven.

CELEBRATION OF ALL SAINTS

P: I believe in God the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

C: 'In him we live and move and have our being.' (Acts 17:28)

P: All Saints is a day to celebrate that God has given us the precious gift of life.

M: Each one of us exists by God's creative will.

W: Each one of us is unique and special before their Creator.

P: We start our celebration with the remembrance of those saints at Bible Lutheran Church, who in this past calendar year have run their course in faith, finished their race, and now live in the presence of God among the saints in light. A hymn verse will be softly played, their names spoken, and a bell will chime.

P: I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord.

C: He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

P: All Saints is a day to celebrate that God has given us the precious gift of eternal life.

M: We who were dead in our trespasses and sins have now been made alive with Christ.

W: And God has raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms. (Eph. 2:5-6)

P: We continue our celebration with the remembrance of all those saints we have known in our lives, both those who by death have gone on to the Lord and those still living among us. As a hymn verse is softly played, every member may quietly speak the names of those saints they wish to remember before the Lord. When finished a bell will chime.

P: I believe in the Holy Spirit,

C: the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

P: All Saints is a day to celebrate the One, Holy, Christian and Apostolic Church of God into which we have been called by the gospel to be fellow members, one of another, in the Body of Christ.

M: We will live lives worthy of the calling we have received.

W: We will make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. (Eph. 4:2-3)

P: We end our celebration by greeting the saints of God inhabiting this holy house today, each one of us a brother or sister in Christ under the same Lord. After passing the peace, we close by singing the last two stanzas of our hymn.

CELEBRATION HYMN "FOR ALL THE SAINTS" LBW #174: 7-8 (Sung) © Oxford University Press

But then there breaks a yet more glorious day: The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way. Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: Alleluia! Alleluia!
