And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.” And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction.

Today's Gospel Lesson

Second Sunday after Pentecost

June 14, 2020

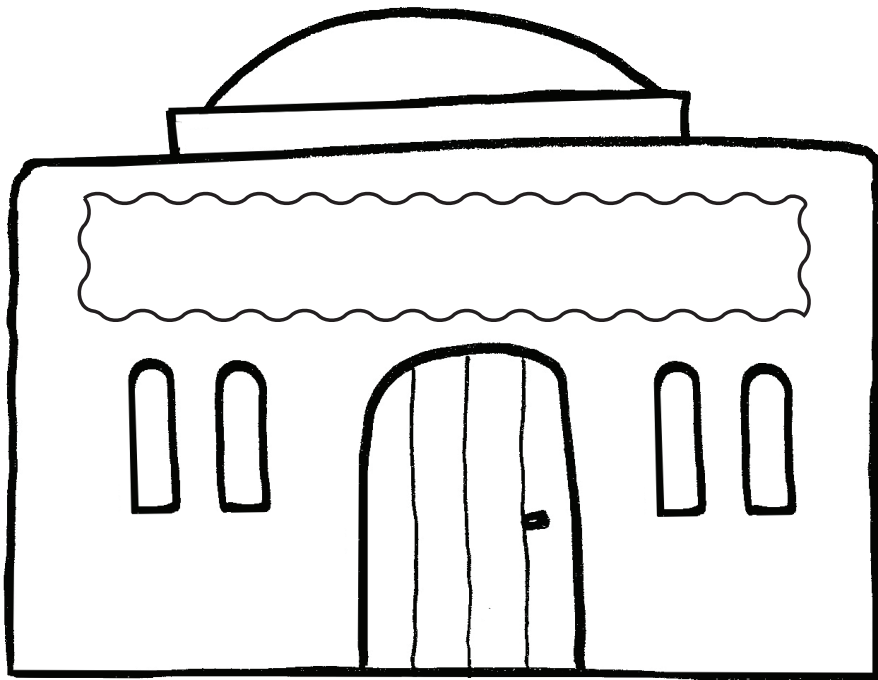

Looking out at the crowds, Jesus said,
“The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.”

Look at this simple house.
Its owner welcomes Jesus' friends!

Draw a walkway, flowers, and grass to make it look cozy.
Write, "Welcome" on the empty sign.

Jesus wanted his followers to think about how blessed they are,
and then, to help others!
