After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), “I thirst.” A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, “It is finished,” and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe.

Before he died on a cross, Jesus said, “It is finished.”

Why did Jesus die on the cross?
To pay for our sins--for all the times we go our own way.
When we stray into sin,
we are like sheep wandering away from the shepherd.

*Color every sheep a different color;
then help each one find its way back to Jesus.*

"All we like sheep have gone astray." (Isaiah 53:6)

When we see a cross,
we remember how Jesus gave his life for us.

Draw the four different types of crosses in the boxes.

*"With his wounds
we are healed."
(Isaiah 53:6)*
