

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST - JUNE 27, 2021

The goodness of the Lord is shown to us in many ways. He grants us healing, community, and comfort. Jesus' compassion is a clear expression of God's love for his people and as Paul reminds us, "that though (Christ) was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich." The generosity of God knows no bounds. As followers of his will, we are called to be generous too.

THE APOSTLES' CREED (Spoken)

I believe in God the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen
