And he vowed to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom.” And she went out and said to her mother, “For what should I ask?” And she said, “The head of John the Baptist.” And she came in immediately with haste to the king and asked, saying, “I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.” And the king was exceedingly sorry, but because of his oaths and his guests he did not want to break his word to her. And immediately the king sent an executioner with orders to bring John’s head. He went and beheaded him in the prison and brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard of it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

You have been blessed by God in so many ways;
not only spiritually, but also here on earth.

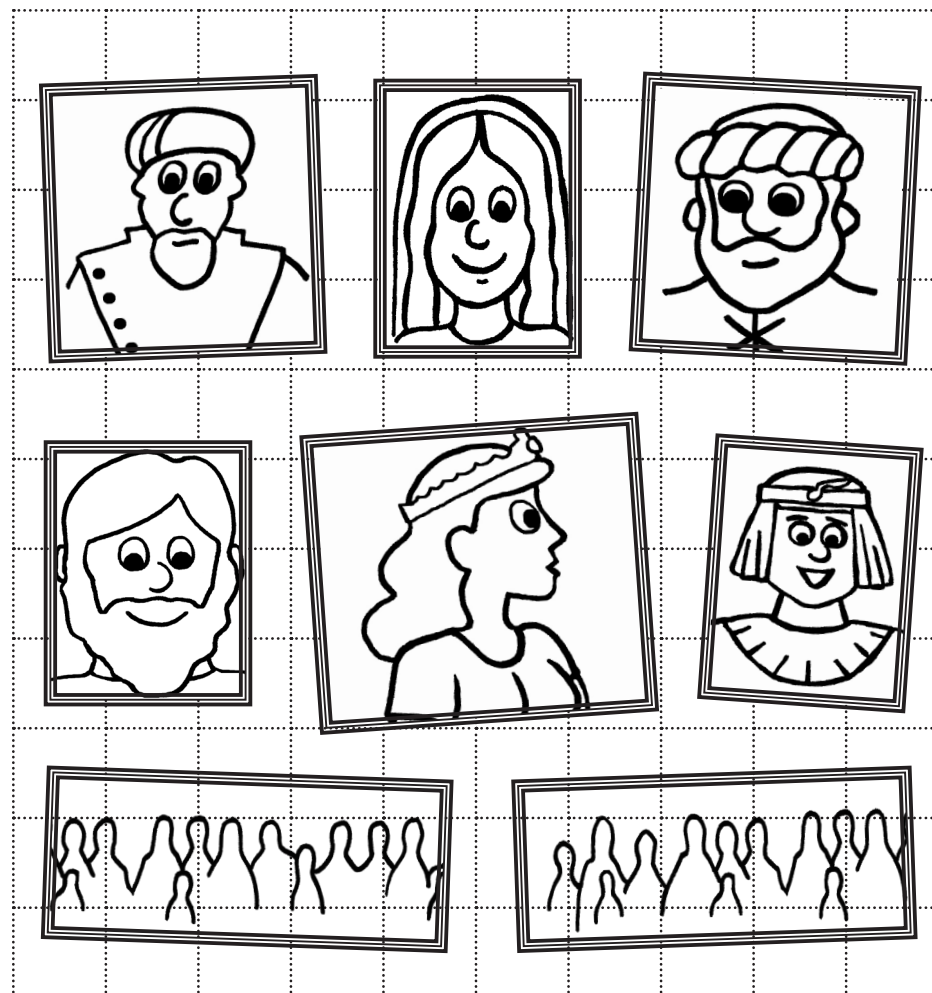

Count your blessings by writing them on the scroll below.
Try to list 20 things you love--or more!

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places...” (Ephesians 1:3).

God told Amos that he would use a “plumb line” to find out if the Israelites were living well or not. A plumb line is a tool made from rope with a weight on one end. The weight hangs down, and helps builders tell if something is straight or crooked.

Using the grid as a guide, draw several plumb lines to figure out which portraits are hanging straight, and which ones are slightly crooked.

“Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel...” (Amos 7:8).
