Leader / Response

CONFESSION & FORGIVENESS

In the name of the Father, and of the (+)Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Ps 124:8)

If you kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand before you?

But with you is forgiveness; therefore, you are adored. (Ps130:3-4)

As we gather to hear God's Word, let us open our hearts to God and confess our sins, trusting in his infinite mercy for forgiveness and asking for his Holy Spirit to amend our sinful lives.

Almighty God, have mercy on me, hear this my confession, forgive all my sins, and renew me by your Holy Spirit for right living. (Silent confession)

In Holy Baptism our merciful God has declared us to be his royal children and forgives our sins for Jesus' sake, our risen Savior and Lord. Give praise now to the Lord of heaven and earth and live joyfully as his witnesses in the world. Amen

<sup>5</sup> On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate.

<sup>6</sup> They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds, and I will declare your greatness.

<sup>7</sup> They shall pour forth the fame of your abundant goodness and shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

<sup>9</sup> The Lord is good to all, and his mercy is over all that he has made.

<sup>10</sup> All your works shall give thanks to you, O Lord, and all your saints shall bless you!

<sup>11</sup> They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom and tell of your power,

READINGS

First Reading: Zechariah 9:9-12

<sup>9</sup> Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!

Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Behold, your king is coming to you;

righteous and having salvation is he,

humble and mounted on a donkey,

on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup> I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem;

and the battle bow shall be cut off,

and he shall speak peace to the nations;

his rule shall be from sea to sea,

and from the River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you,

I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

<sup>12</sup> Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;

today I declare that I will restore to you double.

Second Reading: Romans 7:14-25a

<sup>14</sup> For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin. <sup>15</sup> For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. <sup>16</sup> Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. <sup>17</sup> So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. <sup>18</sup> For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. <sup>19</sup> For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. <sup>20</sup> Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me.

<sup>21</sup> So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. <sup>22</sup> For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, <sup>23</sup> but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. <sup>24</sup> Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? <sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

Gospel: Matthew 11:25-30

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus declared, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; <sup>26</sup> yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. <sup>27</sup> All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. <sup>28</sup> Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

“At that time Jesus declared, ‘I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.’” - Matthew 11:25-26

Has anyone ever asked you when you were saved? This question can be dangerous since it sometimes causes Christians to doubt their faith. Moreover, as Lutherans, we may struggle to answer this question since it arises from a different theological framework. Therefore, we will approach this question by questioning the framework behind it.

In this regard, many evangelical Christians hold that everyone can understand God’s truth. What saves us is making a decision to accept it. But Lutherans understand salvation differently. We believe that no amount of wisdom and understanding will allow us to know the hidden things of God until he first reveals them to us. He must first save us before we can know these truths.

Within a Lutheran framework, what saves us is not our decision for God, but God’s decision for us. Even the faith by which we believe is a gift of God’s grace. Our decision for Christ is but the response of a newly saved person to God’s grace. Thus, it is not that we must make a decision for Christ in order to be born again. Rather, we must be born again to make a decision for Christ.

In Scripture, God’s work of salvation unfolds in a couple of ways. Paul was clearly an adult convert. People like him can name the day and the hour of their conversion. However, John the Baptist was born again from his mother’s womb. Like John the Baptist, those of us who were baptized as infants cannot remember our conversion. We experience spiritual growth over time but cannot recall its starting point.

What both of these cases share in common is the priority of God’s grace in salvation. By grace God overcame the hardness of Paul’s heart, and by grace he gave John the Baptist a soft heart even before birth. How ever we are saved, therefore, our decision for God is always a response to his saving grace. And for Lutherans this decision occurs daily as we return to our baptism in repentance.

Fill the Tank (of Compassion) - Pastor Dave

The compassion of Jesus for a lost and dying world compelled him to go to the cross to confront and defeat the powers of sin, death and the devil. It was compassion that he felt toward the harassed crowds of Israel during his earthly ministry (Mt. 9:35-38) and for which he asked that the church pray to the Lord of the Harvest for laborers to go into the field. As we look ahead this year to engaging the harvest fields of Effingham, here are four suggestions to help us begin filling our tanks with Christ’s compassion.

1) Set an alarm for 12noon on your phone/watch. Say a short prayer asking for God to fill you with divine compassion and to send laborers into the harvest.

2) For those who like to blog/write/express themselves, please feel free to write out prayer petitions around the harvest/compassion theme and mail them to blc.rincon@gmail.com. Pastor will use them on Sundays during the Prayers of the Church.

3) Evangelism Committee will be running a children’s Art Contest, kicking off on Sunday School Promotion Sunday, August 9. Details to follow...

4) Evangelism Committee will be sponsoring a congregational Prayer Vigil before we gather for our congregational planning meeting on Sept. 19. Details to follow...
