“One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own? No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.” The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, and they ridiculed him. And he said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.”

“You cannot serve God and money.”

Children's Worship Pages

A servant is trying to serve two masters.
But it isn't working. He must choose one.

Color both masters.

*What is similar about them? What is different?
Which one would YOU choose to serve?*

This master shares what he has with others.

How does he look?

This master keeps what he has for himself.

How does he look?

What does Jesus say about telling the truth?
